IS THE KINGDOM BEING TAKEN FROM US?

In the Gospel this weekend Jesus says to the religious leaders: "The kingdom of God shall be taken away from you and given to those who will produce its fruit".

It is important that we regularly ask that question of the Lord in our prayer: Are we losing the kingdom, are we losing our souls?

Forget about heaven and hell for a moment. It is about what is happening now in our hearts, minds, emotions, bodies, relationships and lives. Seeing things only in terms of "when I die" can be a subtle way to avoid the here and now issues.

History gives us many examples of people, communities, regions, countries "losing it". Losing openness, tolerance, love, compassion, joy, variety, acceptance, values, meaning and whatever else makes the heart sing. A parish community can have its priests, its liturgies, its groups and still be cold and unwelcoming, judgemental and narrow-minded. It can have too little of the Spirit who comes from God and too much of the spirit of the world (fear, lethargy, discouragement, greed, factions, prejudices etc).

The soul is a very delicate thing. It can expand out to the whole universe and in its appreciation and acceptance embrace everything, even the mystery of God. The soul thrives on love, truth, compassion and freedom.

It responds to beauty and to disfigurement, to joy and to pain. It relishes spontaneity, diversity and harmony. With faith it can flourish on challenge and overcome adversity. Above all the soul can be refreshed and renewed by another or by the Other.

But the soul can also shrink and wither. It can lose the joy. It can become locked into anxiety, bitterness, security and comfort. The soul can become fearful and self-preoccupied. Remember I am not talking so much about sin, although that may be part of the picture but about life, energy, creativity, appreciation, joy, openness or rather the lack of these experiences. We can be going to the sacraments but our souls can still be starving because we are not really letting Christ into the whole of our lives. One moment with the Lord will have little impact if we spend hours & hours consuming only the trivial and superficial.

Bad leadership can also stifle the soul. Rigid, authoritarian and regimental leadership negates confidence, creativity and self-worth. We may not belong to ourselves. If we are living only in the expectations of others. If they are the mirrors which reflect back to us our reality then we won't know who we really are. We won't realise that we are mirrored by Christ as children of God. We need to ask ourselves who am I when I am not a husband, wife, father, mother, wage earner, single person, etc? Do I know myself as one uniquely loved and called by the Other who is the real food of our souls? (DMA)

Congratulations to Bill and Helen as they enjoy the celebration of their Golden Wedding. May the Lord continue to give them a long, healthy and happy life together. Make your message personal by joining Bill and Helen in the Parish Room after Mass. May God bless you both!

The 100 Club. This item was accidentally omitted last week, but Paul Shearer, number 26, won the club prize for September, the valuable prize of £100. Lucky Paul! Have you not yet joined this club? You can easily put that right by presenting yourselves to Anne Woolhouse, Bill Pignatelli or Cedric Lark. Anyone will point you in the right direction if you don't yet know these parishioners.

CAFOD: There is a second collection today for this active and very over-worked missionary charity. Even if you didn't remember the family fast day on Friday, please be very generous with your donation at the end of Mass, using and completing the information needed on the CAFOD envelopes if you are a tax payer. Thank you in advance!

Maybe Lost? A bright pink soft case has been found amongst the choir music, containing a pair of black-rimmed glasses. They may be sorely missed, as they have fairly strong lenses. They can be collected from the presbytery after Mass. There is also a lonely red anorak lying in the presbytery that has not been claimed for several weeks now.

Don't forget to read the section on your news sheet called 'All Parishes'. That is there for all of us!

A CONCERT given by Bournemouth Male Voice Choir & The Friday Girls, on Saturday 14th October, 7.00pm at St. Saviours' church, Brockenhurst, SO42 7SP. Free entry with retiring donations: Street Pastors & Barnabas Fund & Church Funds.

Be Prepared! Please mark your diaries so that you are free to come to the Parish Annual General Meeting, which this year, is to be held after Mass, on Sunday 12th November.

Please remember your sub-editor and keep the sheet alive and up to date. Just tell me the item and I'll write up the rest. Send it to greenoaks@waitrose.com before Thursday lunch time. Thank you!
