Advent Wreath:

Today we light the second candle of Peace. Advent is when the Church enters into a short but magical season that prepares us for the Coming of Christ. And directs the mind and heart to await Christ's second coming at the end of time. Advent is thus a period of Hope, Peace, Love and Joy and of devout and joyful expectation.

Advent is a busy period, not least with writing Christmas cards! The challenge is to find time for prayer and reflection. I pray that you will be successful in finding time in order to keep a sense of true perspective during this holy season and thus be able to find from the Lord much joy and happiness.

Advent Penitential Service with Sacrament of Reconciliation at St. Theresa's

Wednesday, 19th December 7.00pm till 8.00pm: There will be a short Penitential Service, Adoration of Blessed Sacrament with Confessions. I have requested the gracious presence of another priest to help me with confessions. It will be a great way of celebrating Advent and prepare for the birth of Our Lord.

FOOD BANK: Please keep up your food bank support, as demand is sure to increase over the

'PORTSMOUTH PEOPLE': Sadly, this free diocesan magazine which many of you used to take and enjoy has ceased to exist. Its budget was approved in July, but almost immediately was subjected to a 26% cut, which made continued publication impossible, and closure was indeed announced at the end of July. Diocese events and publications are now available on diocese's web site on e-news

Jay Kettle-Williams, the Southsea-based editor, has been snapped up by 'Catholic South West', a monthly tabloid of the Plymouth Diocese, Apostleship of the Sea - Stella Maris - at Christmas.

The Apostleship of the Sea (AoS), each year, seeks your kind donations of woolly hats and ever-popular Toblerone chocolate, as well as other personal items to support the many seafarers who work on the high seas. Financial donations are also welcomed.

Live Simply so that others may simply live: In this season of Advent, we look forward to celebrating the birth of Jesus in the company of our loved ones on Christmas Day. It is a time of gift giving and receiving that marks our care and love for each other. This year why not mark your care and love for our brothers and sisters in the poorest parts of the world by contributing to CAFOD's work to transform their lives through safe water, better nutrition and access to education. You will find CAFOD World Gifts leaflets in our churches or go to www.worldgifts.cafod.org.uk and order online.

Nativity Scenes:

Kevin Stratford estate agent in Lyndhurst has given Our Lady's use of his empty shop window over the Christmas period. To place in the window a variety of differing styles of Nativity cribs some from different parts of the world. If you are passing the shop window? Take a look.
