The POPE Tweets @pontifex

The martyrs of all times, with their fidelity to Christ, tell us that injustice does not have the last word: we can continue to hope in the risen Lord.
Easter

Dear Friends,

e-News is not being published this week because of the holiday, so I wish you well, here and now, over these next days. One of the great things this weekend is our new diocesan magazine Viva Voce (see inside) which you should receive in your parishes over the Easter weekend. It has "AR" (‘Augmented Reality’) as part of it, for which you will need to download the new diocesan App. AR is going to be great, especially for noticeboards! It'll be possible to bring notices and newsletters to life by scanning over the page with the App and then video messages and other features will spring to life. We are, I believe, the first Diocese in Europe using this technology on this scale and it promises for us an exciting future! By the way, I hope you like Viva Voce. This edition is very much a pilot issue and Chris Smith, our Communications Director, is inviting your feedback as to what you would like. Meanwhile, have a blessed Easter.
Let's remember the Church in France in our prayers after the disastrous fire at Notre Dame. And please pray for me too. God bless you all.
